Re: Child Support

Dear:

We are aware that you are to be released from prison in the near future. We understand that you will have many issues, concerns, and barriers regarding making child support payments during this transitional period. We want to work with you to help make that transition as smooth as possible with regards to your child support case(s). Therefore, I am enclosing two packets of information that may be useful to you upon your release.

The first packet titled "FAQ Sheets" contains information relating child support payments, guidelines, your rights and responsibilities, paying child support, how to make changes to your support order, emancipation of your child, and terminating your order.

The second packet titled "Employment And/Or Educational Resources" contains flyers from agencies and programs that can assist you in finding employment and or training.

I hope these tools will help your get off to a good start upon your release. If you need to discuss your support case please feel free to contact me in one of the following ways: by phone at 513-946-7271, via e-mail at WILLSK01@jfs.hamilton-co.or, fax at 513-946-7309, or mail at Hamilton County CSEA 237 William Howard Taft, Cincinnati, Ohio 45219.

Sincerely,

Kathy Wills
