Re: Non Payment of Child Support
Case Numbers:

As you are aware, it has been over 60 days since your release from prison. In reviewing your case I see that you are not making full and consistent payments on your case. I am concerned for you regarding the many legal actions that the CSEA may/can take against you for non payment. The following actions can/may be taken against you for non payment:

- Suspend your license
- Suspend your passport
- freeze and seize your bank accounts
- Deny your passport
- File contempt charges
- request Criminal Non Support charges
- attach liens against any personal property you may own
- attach your tax refunds
- report your lack of payment to the credit union
- If you are currently on parole report your non payment to your parole officer.

Therefore, it is urgent that you contact us to discuss your situation. Avoiding us will only cause more legal issues for you.

Please contact us immediately.

Sincerely,

Kathy Wills
